Gio Ponti's Historic Designs come to Los Angeles

The Italian Consulate General of Los Angeles has teamed up with Snaidero USA to showcase the global style of acclaimed Italian artist and designer Gio Ponti, as part of the celebration of "2013, Year of Italian Culture in the US." Premiering in June, "La Casa all'Italiana. Gio Ponti in LA," will be on display at the home of Italian Consul General, Giuseppe Perrone, in the Hollywood Hills.

Curated by Lon Hamaekers, the exhibit will illustrate the integral power of Ponti's designs- vintage pieces of furniture and decorations still perfectly compatible with modern daily use.

The installation will last approximately 10 days and can be visited by appointments only. For more information, please contact the Consulate General of Italy in Los Angeles.
