8th Annual Tour of Kitchens + Bites | Coral Gables

03/01/2017 10:57 am ET | Updated 5 hours ago

The Coral Gables Community Foundation's 8th Annual Tour of Kitchens benefiting and supporting the Culinary Arts Program at Coral Gables High School was held on February 4, 2017. The weather was perfect as attendees met up for the opening event at Snaidero Kitchen Designs (4110 Ponce de Leon), a leader in innovative and modern designs. A bountiful and delicious breakfast was provided by Gilbert's Bakery. Mimosas flowed as participants registered and began taking notes on how they'd visit the homes. Some drove their vehicles, some rode bikes and others traveled luxuriously in limousines.

Two stops were within walking distance of Snaidero. Miele (4218 Ponce de Leon), a German manufacturer and supplier of washing machines, ovens, vacuum cleaners, and refrigerators. Founded in 1899, Miele stands by its "Forever Better" brand promising their customers peace-of-mind in knowing they purchased quality.

One of my favorites was Herbert Brito's Casa Carambola located in the Historic District. As the founding principal of Brito Design Studio, he designed and completed the kitchen in 2016 which is an extension of the dining room allowing easy interaction with guests. I was mesmerized by the eclectic decor throughout the home and the appliances in the kitchen are all from Miele and kitchen cabinets by Snaidero because Herbert has impeccable taste!

Lastly, the closing ceremony at the Ferguson Showroom (4119 Ponce de Leon) featuring champagne and bites from Seasons 52, Cao Chocolates, HoneyBee Doughnuts, Happy Sugar Drop, Almotti, Green Gables Cafe and Dolci Peccati was the cherry on top. What an excellent day!
