

LUXURY

LUXURY MAGAZINE

FALL 2018

Pininfarina, the firm known for its automotive designs (Maserati, Ferrari, BMW), has introduced a prototype kitchen for Snaidero that's visually about motion. Shelving is framed by a striking diagonal cutout, and a stainless steel peninsula looks as sleek as a car silhouette. Available late 2018. Price not available at press time; snaidero-usa.com

KITCHEN CONFIDENTIAL

Every other year Salone del Mobile.Milan hosts Eurocucina, showcasing the latest innovations in kitchen design and technology to come out of the European continent. The focus, of course, is on Italian sophistication and aesthetics.

+VENOVO is a new freestanding kitchen from Poggenpohl that can move with you when you relocate. All elements for prepping, cooking, and

Belgian minimalist master Vincent Van Duysen, creative director of Molteni&C and its sister brand, Dada, just introduced Ratio. The metal grids of the architectonic modular system are alternately filled in with woods (black palm shown here) and stones (rapolano travertine). Price not available at press time; dada-kitchens.com

